Patient Health Information Consent Form

We want you to know how your Patient Health Information (PHI) is going to be used in this office and your rights concerning those records. Before we will begin any health care operations we must require you to read and sign this consent form stating that you understand and agree with how your records will be used. If you would like to have a more detailed account of our policies and procedures concerning the privacy of your Patient Health Information we encourage you to read the HIPAA NOTICE that is available to you at the front desk before signing this consent.

1. The patient understands and agrees to allow this chiropractic office to use their Patient Health Information (PHI) for the purpose of treatment, payment, healthcare operations, and coordination of care. As an example, the patient agrees to allow this chiropractic office to submit requested PHI to the Health Insurance Company (or companies) provided to us by the patient for the purpose of payment. Be assured that this office will limit the release of all PHI to the minimum needed for what the insurance companies require for payment.

2. The patient has the right to examine and obtain a copy of his or her own health records at any time and request corrections. The patient may request to know what disclosures have been made and submit in writing any further restrictions on the use of their PHI. Our office is not obligated to agree to those restrictions.

3. A patient's written consent need only be obtained one time for all subsequent care given the patient in this office.

4. The patient may provide a written request to revoke consent at any time during care. This would not affect the use of those records for the care given prior to the written request to revoke consent but would apply to any care given after the request has been presented.

5. For your security and right to privacy, all staff has been trained in the area of patient record privacy and a privacy official has been designated to enforce those procedures in our office. We have taken all precautions that are known by this office to assure that your records are not readily available to those who do not need them.

6. Patients have the right to file a formal complaint with our privacy official about any possible violations of these policies and procedures.

7. If the patient refuses to sign this consent for the purpose of treatment, payment and health care operations, the chiropractic physician has the right to refuse to give care.

I have read and understand how my Patient Health Information (PHI) will be used and I agree to these policies and procedures.

Informed Consent

The primary treatment used by doctors of chiropractic is the spinal manipulation or spinal adjustment.

The nature of the chiropractic adjustment/manipulation:

The doctor will use his/her hands or a mechanical instrument upon your body in such a way as to move your joints. This adjustment may cause an audible “pop” or “click” much like when you “crack” your knuckles. You may or may not feel or sense movement. The doctor may also choose to provide therapy including muscle massage, ultrasound, electrical muscle stimulation or cold laser therapy.

The material risks inherent in chiropractic adjustments/manipulations:

As with any healthcare procedure, there are certain effects or complications which may arise. These complications can include fracture, disc injuries, muscle strains, cervical myelopathy (compression of the spinal cord), injuries of ribs, and soreness or stiffness after treatment. Some types of manipulation of the neck have been associated with injuries of the arteries in the neck leading to or contributing to serious complications including stroke.

The probability of risks occurring:

Fractures, disc, rib injuries, and cervical myelopathy are rare occurrences and generally result from some underlying condition or weakness. The doctor makes every attempt to become aware of these during the taking of your history and during examination. Injuries to arteries and stroke caused by chiropractic manipulation of the neck have been the subject of ongoing research and debate in the medical community. The most current research on the topic is inconclusive. There are types of manipulation that are least likely to be associated with these injuries. Upon your request the doctor will discuss these in detail. At all times the doctor will choose treatments that minimize the risk of discomfort and injury while providing the greatest benefit for your condition.

DO NOT SIGN UNTIL YOU HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE ABOVE

- I have read or have had read to me the above explanation of the chiropractic and adjustment and related treatment. I have discussed it with Dr. Jordan M. DeGrazia, Dr. Spencer Brink, or Dr. Maria Conley and have had my questions answered to my satisfaction. By signing below I state that I have weighed the risks involved in undergoing treatment and I have decided that it is in my best interest to undergo the treatment recommended. Having been informed of the risks, I hereby give my consent to receive care.

Good Faith Estimate

Beginning January 1st, 2022 under the “No Surprises Act”, health care providers are required by law to provide patients with an estimate of expected charges for medical items and services, referred to as a “Good Faith Estimate” (GFE). Please read the following disclaimers to best understand how this policy will affect you.

Patients have the right to receive a GFE for the total expected cost of any non-emergency items or services. Patients will first be notified verbally of any non-covered charges, or any charges that the patient is expected to pay for out of pocket without insurance. Verbal notification is given before services are rendered. Patient will then be given a physical copy to sign for consent. A copy of GFE is available upon request. New Patients can request a GFE before scheduling services. An updated GFE may be requested at any time. There may be additional items or services that must be scheduled or requested separately and may not be included in initial GFE. For new services or charges, additional GFE will be made available with appropriate details.

This is only an estimate of costs expected to be furnished at the time of service. Actual charges may differ from charges included in GFE. GFE is not a contract and does not require a patient to obtain the items or services from the provider(s) or facility. If charges differ substantially from GFE, patient has the right to ask provider to update the bill to match the GFE, ask to negotiate the bill, or ask if there is financial assistance available. Patient additionally has the right to initiate the patient-provider dispute resolution process if the actual billed charges are “substantially in excess of the expected charges included in the GFE”. Patient must start the dispute process within 120 calendar days of the date on the original bill. There is a $25 fee to use the dispute process. If the agency reviewing patient’s dispute agrees with patient, patient will have to pay the price on this Good Faith Estimate. If the agency disagrees with patient and agrees with the health care provider or facility, patient will have to pay the higher amount.

For questions or more information about your right to a Good Faith Estimate or the dispute process, visit www.cms.gov/nosurprises/consumers or call 1-800-985-3059.

I attest that I have read and understand the above information and disclaimers. I am aware of my rights to a Good Faith Estimate and how the “No Surprises Act” will affect me with this provider
